

Dr. Tsur Somerville is Director of the UBC Centre for Urban Economics and Real Estate, Associate Professor of Strategy & Business Economics, and holder of the Real Estate Foundation Professorship in Real Estate Finance at the Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia. His current research interest focuses on real estate development and housing markets. Among the areas of active interest are the role of land assembly in urban redevelopment, the effects of housing quality and market uncertainty on real estate markets, real estate auctions and house pricing, and the economics of urban sprawl and sustainability. His articles have been published in Real Estate Economics, the Journal of Urban Economics, Regional Science and Urban Economics, Journal of Real Estate Finance and Economics, Journal of Housing Economics, Journal of Housing Research, and International Real Estate Review. He has served as the president of the Asian Real Estate Society, is on the board of directors of the American Real Estate and Urban Economics Association, and on the editorial boards of the Journal of Real Estate Research, International Real Estate Review, and Real Estate Economics. He is a NAIOP Distinguished Fellow. Dr Somerville received his Ph.D. in Economics from Harvard University and his BA from the Hebrew University (Israel) in Economics and East Asian Studies. Dr Somerville has been at the Sauder School of Business since 1993.

Personal webpage: <http://sbe.sauder.ubc.ca/somerville/>